

Class 7th

Sub:- English

Grammar

1. Concept of onomatopoeia.
2. Interchange of voice
3. Finite & Non-Finite verbs
4. Gerunds.
5. Essay.

My Favourite Teacher (09)

There are many teachers in our school. But I like Mr Umap the most. He is my class teacher. He is 30 years old. He is tall and strong. He is very active and smart. He is an M.Sc, B.ed. He teaches us science.

He is a good teacher. He teaches us well. He is the master of his subject. He never beats us. He is very kind to us. He helps the poor students with money and books.

Mr Umap is an ideal teacher. He has many good habits. He does not smoke. He is never angry. He is never late for school. He is very hard-working. He loves the students and the students respect him. He is in the good books of the principal. I am proud of him. May he live long!

Onomatopoeia:- A word that sounds like what it represents, such as 'gurgle' or 'hiss'

Finite verb:- Finite verb is the verb that is limited by the number and person of the subject.

e.g. He eats food.
We eat food.

Non-Finite verb:- Non-finite verb is the verb that is not limited by the number and person of the subject.

e.g. I want to sing.
They want to sing.

Gerund:- A gerund is a non-finite verb which acts as a noun in a sentence.

e.g. Swimming is a good exercise.
Seeing is believing.